NO LEGAL ADVICE PROVIDED

The Resource Center can provide some legal information and community referrals. We can help you prepare your own forms. We do not write the forms for you. We do not go to court with you.

The Resource Center is NOT YOUR LAWYER, but is a neutral person who does not represent any party. There is no attorney-client relationship between you and the Resource Center. What you tell the Resource Center is not confidential. You should consult your own attorney if you want personalized advice or strategy, to have a confidential conversation, or be represented by an attorney in court.
